

Primary School Robbery

Yesterday evening a car arrived at Tin Shui Wai Primary School and stopped at the car park. Two robbers came out of the car. They walked up to the first floor sneakily.

First, they went to the computer room and saw two teachers, Mr Hsie and Miss Tam. Mr Hsie was playing computer games when the robbery happened. Miss Tam was working on her notebook computer when the robbery happened. The robbers pointed the gun at the teachers and told them to take out all their valuable things or they would fire their guns. The teachers had no where to go so they took out all kinds of valuable things like phones, computers and a purse.

After robbing the teachers, they thought it was time to go. They only had one more step to go when one teacher was trying to stop them. The robbers were angry so they fired their guns at the teachers. They escaped eventually.

Primary School Robbery

Yesterday evening two teachers were working on their computers in the computer room. Suddenly a strange car stopped at the school car park. Then, two strange men who were wearing a school uniform and a mask got out of the car. One robber was wearing glasses but not the other one. The two strange men took out one thing. It was a gun!

After that, they talked to each other. They said, 'Let's rob the school!' Then the robbers went up the stairs and they stood outside the computer room. In the computer room, there were two rich teachers. They were Miss Tam and Mr Hsie. They were using the most expensive computers and phones. The two teachers were working on the computers. Suddenly the two robbers ran into the computer room and shot to the sky and shouted, 'Give me all your money and things!' The two rich teachers were scared and so they took out their valuable things and gave them to the robbers.

After the robbers finished their job, the robbers pointed the gun at the teachers and ran away. When they reached the ground floor, a woman was killed by the robbers. Then the robbers drove their car and escaped. The two rich teachers called the police. They told the police what had happened.

At last, the police found a base. Inside the base, the two robbers were there. The police finally caught the robbers.

Primary School Robbery

Yesterday evening I was playing football with my friends in the school playground. I was glad because it was my first time to play with my friends. While we were packing things, I heard a loud noise. I saw two robbers who wore our school uniform and carried a gun. Their car was outside our school. When the robbers fired their guns, we were shocked.

One of the robbers entered the staff room and fired 4 to 5 times. He robbed lots of files, notebook computers and cash (worth $5,000). Another robber went into the computer room and robbed two teacher's mobile phones, watches, wallets and cash. One of the teachers asked, 'Why...Why do you rob us?' The robber said nothing.

At the same time, the alarm went off. The robbers heard that so they went out of the school as fast as they could. My friend called the police when they were running to their car. Some of my friends chased after their car and luckily no one got hurt.

Today I watched the news and I knew that the robbers were caught in Kowloon. They were sent to the police station. But their driver was still escaping, The police were investigating some suspects in order to find the last robber.

Primary School Robbery

Yesterday evening I was having an English lesson in the classroom. We were reading a story about ‘crime’ when we heard someone screamed loudly on the ground floor. We were worried but curious.

There was a car outside the school gate. A driver was waiting for their partners inside the car. The driver shouted loudly, ‘Hurry up or we will be seized by the police!’ The other robbers said, ‘OK!’ We were very scared.

The robbers went into the school lobby. The janitor screamed. One of the robbers pointed his gun at her. He said fiercely, ‘Keep quiet! Or I will shoot you!’ Another robber shouted, ‘Give me all the money! Quick!’ The teachers nearby gave money to them. One of the teachers asked, ‘Um...Can you go now?’ The robbers were angry and pushed the teacher. They were too greedy so they wanted more money. But the teachers refused to give them more. Then they hit the janitor and the janitor broke her arm badly.

Suddenly, the alarm went off loudly. But the robbers were still looking for money. After that a police car arrived. The robbers were shocked and wanted to escape. A teacher said, ‘Your driver is caught! You cannot escape by the car now!’ The robbers looked scared and hid themselves in the toilet.

When the police arrived, we told the police, ‘The robbers are in the toilet now.’ The police went into the toilet quietly. When the robbers saw the police, they accidentally slipped on the water and crashed into the wall. It was funny. Finally all the robbers were caught. What an unforgettable day!
