

Today my class teacher gave me an egg. We had to be the egg's guardian for three weeks. Its name was Dragon Pikachu. It was the egg with the lovely blue eyes and in the shirt. I felt excited when I got the egg.

This morning, my egg and I went up and down the stairs together, I held him in my hands. He said, 'You are so nice to me!' 'Ha ha ha,' I smiled sheepishly, 'it's only because I don't want to write eighty words!' 'You should take care of me!'

In the afternoon, we had a Maths lesson together. I was so sleepy and hungry because I didn't eat anything! Then, I took a look at my egg. I thought, 'That rotten egg, he ate my snacks quickly!' Suddenly, Miss Leung asked me a question, and my egg answered, 'Ninety-nine!'

At night, he said, 'Let's have dinner!' 'Yes, we'll have curry chicken for dinner.' After dinner, my egg remembered something. 'You should thank me for my help in the Maths lesson,' he said proudly. 'Ok! Ok! Thank you!' At last, we watched YouTube together.

I learnt that we should say thank you after someone helps you. You should also be careful.

Today my class teacher gave me an egg. We had to be the egg's guardian for three weeks. Its name was Sugarfox. It was the egg with the big ears and big eyes. I felt excited when I got the egg.

This morning, we did the writing. When Sugarfox finished, she shouted, 'Miss Tam, I've finished!' I stopped her and said, 'You shouldn't shout in the classroom. You should raise your hand and wait.' At recess, we shared snacks with each other. Then we were so sleepy, so we took a nap together.

In the afternoon, we went home and had lunch together. Then we started to do homework. After we finished it, we drew pictures, played computer games, had a snack party and took a walk. I was glad to have a friend who could play with me every day.

At night, we had a tasty dinner with grandpa and grandma. Then we talked a lot and watched a very funny movie for a few hours. When we were about to go to bed, Sugarfox fell on the ground! I screamed, 'Oh no!' Luckily, it didn't break or crack.

I learnt that it is really hard to take care of an egg! I promise I will be careful next time.

5C Ng Hei Yin Hayley A strange dream

This morning, Miss Wong was telling a story about Princess Kate in the lesson. Gloria was really interested in the story but she was so sleepy and tired. It was because she didn't sleep well last night. Soon she fell asleep in the lesson.

In her dream, she saw three princesses and her best friend, Amy, in a colourful room. They were at a ball. She asked Amy, 'Who is the girl with the curly hair in the pink dress?' Amy answered, 'She is Princess Kate.' After a while, she was scared because Amy left the ball. She was alone. When the clock struck midnight, she saw Princess Kate run away quickly. She didn't notice that she dropped her necklace. Gloria picked up the necklace and wanted to give it back to Princess Kate.

Then Gloria borrowed someone's bike to chase Princess Kate. Princess Kate saw her necklace and she said, 'Thank you so much! I have to leave! Here is a gift for you!' Princess Kate gave Gloria the gift and said goodbye to Gloria.

At last, Gloria heard someone say, 'Wake up! Pay attention!' Then she realised that it was only a dream!

Dear Mike,

How are you? I'm really worried about my English Test.

Last night, I studied hard for my English test until midnight because I thought it was difficult.

Today I woke up at seven thirty and I was so nervous. I had hoped I could catch the bus but I was too late. I missed the bus. I was so worried that I was late for school. At eight thirty, I arrived at school. The test had started so I had only thirty minutes to do the test. I could not finish all the questions of the test. I was so upset.

I learnt that I should not go to bed late and do revision every day.

Please write soon.

Love,
Karen
