A Day Trip in Ma Wan

Last Saturday, Mike and Kitty had a day trip in Ma Wan. In the morning, they went to Ma Wan by ferry. The trip was quick and comfortable.

They finally arrived. They went to a park but it was very hot so they put on some sun cream to avoid sunburn.

Then, they went to a playground. It was huge and colorful. Mike said, 'Wow! This playground is huge! We can even play Cops and Robbers there!' 'How exciting!' said Kitty. They played for a while and they enjoyed playing it too.

At 3 p.m., they felt hungry so they wanted to cook something to eat. Kitty asked, 'Where is the barbecue site, Mike?' Mike said, 'Let's check the map. Oh! It's not far, and it's right in front of us!' Kitty said to herself, 'Then what's the point of saying this...' They bought some charcoal and started cooking. They cooked some sausages and chicken wings. The sausages were juicy.

Suddenly, a man walked to them and said, 'Children, do you mind if I try some sausages?' Mike shouted, 'My mom says never talk to strangers!' The man left and talked to himself, 'It's so close! Why can't I even get money from these kids?' He sighed, 'Nowadays, kids are clever.'

Dr. Ma's Invention

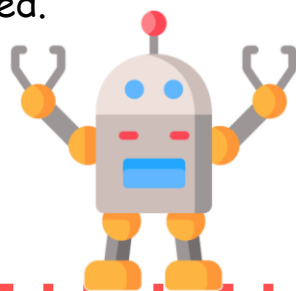

Dr. Ma was a careless inventor. He liked inventing so he created a lot of things.

One day he wanted to make a robot. First he used a wood cutter to cut the wood. Then he used the wood to make the robot's body. Next he used a piece of metal and made the robot's arms.

After he finished making the robot, he showed it to Dr. Right. The robot was made of different materials. Its head was made of plastic. Its eyes were made of glass. Its arms and legs were made of metal and its body was made of wood. Dr. Ma said, 'Dr. Right, take a look of my robot.' He pressed the button and the robot started walking.

Dr. Right shouted, 'The robot will fall down! The robot only has one leg! If the robot falls down, it will explode!' Dr. Ma said, 'It won't!' He pressed the button again.

Then all the robot's arms withdrew inside the body and many legs extended! Dr. Ma shouted, 'Fly!' and the robot flew around the room. Dr. Right was amazed.

Lost on Lantau

Last Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Chan went hiking on Lantau Island because they wanted to visit the Big Buddha. They felt so excited because it was their first time to visit there.

In the morning, the weather was fine. They packed their backpacks and went to Lantau Island by bus. At two o'clock, they started to hike. After one and a half hours, they saw the Big Buddha. It was very close to them. Then they took many beautiful photos.

Five hours later, it was dark. They were very tired. Unluckily, they got lost. They saw a man and asked, 'Excuse me! How far is it from here to the bus stop?' The man replied, 'It's not far. It's one and a half kilometres.' Then they ran to the bus stop. When they arrived at the bus stop, the bus left. They missed the last bus. They were very tired and frustrated.

At last, they went home by taxi. They arrived at home at three in the morning. They were very hungry so they ate two bowls of noodles. After taking a good bath, they went to bed quickly. They learnt that they needed to have a good plan when they went hiking next time.

The MTR Thief

Yesterday evening, my mum and I arrived at the MTR station at six after visiting my friend. When we were walking to the platform, it was very crowded because a lot of people were waiting for the next train.

When we were waiting in the queue, I noticed a suspicious man who was looking at a lady's handbag. The lady was waiting for the train. Then he opened her bag quietly. Suddenly he stole the lady's purse and put it in his bag. I was so scared. Then the man ran to the exit and tried to escape fast.

When the man ran to the exit a policeman shouted, 'Put your hands up!' At last the MTR thief was arrested by the policeman. My mum asked me, 'Why did the policeman come?' I said, 'I was scared so I called the police.' My mum said, 'You're so brave!' I learnt that I should not steal someone's thing and should be brave.
